

THE OKEE DOKEE BROTHERS

Saddle Up! In June of 2015, The Okee Dokee Brothers went out West for a month-long horsepacking trip along the Continental Divide. They rode horses, camped out, told stories, and wrote the songs that make up this album. There's plenty of room at the campfire, so gather 'round and tell us a good one! Saddle Up is the third CD/DVD in The Okee Dokee Brothers' Adventure Album Series.

Joe and Justin have traded their paddles for saddles and their hiking boots for cowboy boots. They spent 30 days riding horses and writing songs about western wildlife (Jackalope), Navajo stories (Sister Moon and Brother Sun), the Spanglish of the Southwest (Somos Amigos), friendship (The Great Divide), and much more.

Joe Mailander and Justin Lansing have known each other since they were three years old. As childhood friends growing up in Denver, Colorado, they were always exploring the outdoors. Whether it was rafting down their neighborhood creek or discovering hiking trails through the Rocky Mountains, Joe and Justin were born adventurers. They started playing music together in high school, and now, as the GRAMMY® Award-winning Okee Dokee Brothers, they have put their passion for the outdoors at the heart of their Americana folk music. Joe and Justin make family music and take real-life adventures with a goal to inspire families to get outside and get creative.
